Thank you for your comments.

All public comments submitted for the public hearing that are received not more than 15 minutes after the close of the speakers list for that public hearing will be distributed to members of Council for their consideration. The public comments must include the name of the writer.

In addition, these public comments will also be posted on the City's website (http://vancouver.ca/ctyclerk/councilmeetings/meeting_schedule.cfm).

Please note that your contact information will be removed from the comments, with the exception of the writer's name. Comments received after the start of the public hearing should not exceed 1500 words.

Public comments submitted for the public hearing that are received more than 15 minutes after the close of the speakers list, will not be distributed until after Council has made a decision regarding the public hearing application and the related bylaw is enacted, if applicable.

For more information regarding Public Hearings, please visit vancouver.ca/publichearings.

Thank you.

Subject: Proposed New Maximum Fines in City By-laws

I have just been informed that City of Vancouver is taking a big blink on Proposed New Maximum Fines in City By-laws.

This brings back memories of 20 January 2011!

However, some of the points in what I intended to offer you as my open written submission still apply.

See the written account that is up at <http://vancouver.mediacoop.ca/story/city-vancouver-seeks-quintuple-fines/15579>
