Dear Vancouver City Council and Mayor Gregor,

Over the last year, Vancouverites and other British Columbians have expressed frustration with our archaic liquor laws. While the provincial government has been making ongoing improvements to our archaic liquor laws, I am disappointed that the City of Vancouver is now looking to prohibit much of the freedoms recently granted to craft breweries and distilleries in our province.

As a resident, I believe that the proposed restrictions on Brewery and Distillery lounges and Special Event Endorsement areas will greatly limit their social and cultural potential.

I urge you to remove the proposed restrictions which:

- limit brewery/distillery lounges to 860 square feet.
- place an 11pm curfew on brewery/distillery hours.
- place a limit of 2 special events per month at Special Event Endorsement areas.

Micro-breweries and micro-distilleries provide an opportunity to become social/cultural hubs, promote tourism, and promote locally crafted liquor. Placing additional restrictions further reinforces Vancouver's reputation as a No Fun City.

Please support progressive and sensible liquor laws and regulations.

Dear Vancouver City Council and Mayor Gregor,

Over the last year, Vancouverites and other British Columbians have expressed frustration with our archaic liquor laws. While the provincial government has been making ongoing improvements to our archaic liquor laws, I am disappointed that the City of Vancouver is now looking to prohibit much of the freedoms recently granted to craft breweries and distilleries in our province.

As a resident, I believe that the proposed restrictions on Brewery and Distillery lounges and Special Event Endorsement areas will greatly limit their social and cultural potential.

I urge you to remove the proposed restrictions which:

- limit brewery/distillery lounges to 860 square feet.
- place an 11pm curfew on brewery/distillery hours.
- place a limit of 2 special events per month at Special Event Endorsement areas.

Micro-breweries and micro-distilleries provide an opportunity to become social/cultural hubs, promote tourism, and promote locally crafted liquor. Placing additional restrictions further reinforces Vancouver's reputation as a No Fun City.

Please support progressive and sensible liquor laws and regulations.

Subject: Please Support Craft Breweries and Distilleries

Dear Vancouver City Council and Mayor Gregor,

Over the last year, Vancouverites and other British Columbians have expressed frustration with our archaic liquor laws. While the provincial government has been making ongoing improvements to our archaic liquor laws, I am disappointed that the City of Vancouver is now looking to prohibit much of the freedoms recently granted to craft breweries and distilleries in our province.

As a resident, I believe that the proposed restrictions on Brewery and Distillery lounges and Special Event Endorsement areas will greatly limit their social and cultural potential.

I urge you to remove the proposed restrictions which:

- limit brewery/distillery lounges to 860 square feet.
- place an 11pm curfew on brewery/distillery hours.
- place a limit of 2 special events per month at Special Event Endorsement areas.

Micro-breweries and micro-distilleries provide an opportunity to become social/cultural hubs, promote tourism, and promote locally crafted liquor. Placing additional restrictions further reinforces Vancouver's reputation as a No Fun City.

Please support progressive and sensible liquor laws and regulations.
