6. Management of Commercial Garbage Containers in Vancouver (File 3756)

The Committee had before it an Administrative Report dated June 14, 2005, in which the General Manager of Engineering Services, presented findings of the pilot program to secure commercial garbage containers and sought Council approval relating to changes in the Solid Waste and Recycling By-law to provide staff the tools necessary to improve lane cleanliness and reduce the number of waste container fires.

Councillor Cadman rose on a point of order, questioning the validity of the recommendation before Council as it was similar to a motion previously defeated by Council on April 26, 2005, and, therefore, reconsideration might be required to deal with the recommendation.

Tom Timm, General Manager of Engineering, responded regarding the rationale for the recommendation. Council agreed to determine the need for reconsideration following staff presentation and speakers.

Kevin Van Vliet, Solid Waste Management Engineer, reviewed the report and along with Mr. Timm, and Brian Davies, Assistant City Engineer, Solid Waste Services, responded to questions which included the effect of locking dumpsters, the impact on marginalized communities, bin locations, and enforcement issues.

The following spoke in favour in favour of the recommendations generally, but expressed concerns:

Todd Allan

Robert Gateman (brief submitted - on file)

Louise Yako, Waste Management Division, BC Trucking Association

Maks Golabka, Mount Pleasant BIA (brief submitted - on file)

Svetlana Fouks, President, Yaletown BIA (brief submitted - on file)

Speakers' comments included:

- bins are used to hide behind for drug, prostitution, and washroom use;
- residents pay high taxes, property values are rising, and City has to provide more services to clean alleys/compress garbage at suitable times of the day;

- condition of alleys creates health hazards;
- bins/nearby walls are in terrible condition (tags/graffiti) and attract vandalism;
- bins should be removed from problem alleys;
- people will take advantage of by-laws due to lack of enforcement/discipline issues;
- consider attaching compliance enforcement to Business Licenses;
- identification of bin users would be beneficial for enforcement purposes;
- cost is a major factor;
- fire department needs to spend time on something other than bin fires;
- aggressive penalty system should be implemented;
- burden should not be placed on downtown alley dwellers;
- reviewed Yaletown concerns including
 - area is unique and must be treated appropriately;
 - state of alleyways/streets with dumpsters locked and unlocked; many proprietors must store garbage inside premises as there is no room in dumpsters;
 - community feels abandoned by City; receives no value for high taxes;
 - residential area/business/tourism is suffering from negative public perception and beautification program does not help as problems continue and increase;
 - strategy for oil bins (restaurants) also required; and
 - a radical/aggressive approach is needed for long-term strategy.

The following spoke in general opposition to the recommendations:

Kim Kerr, Executive Director, DERA
Ken Lyotier, United We Can
Tony Shinkawa

Speakers' comments included:

- real issue is poverty and how abundance is shared;
- people regularly eat out of garbage containers, and this is increasing;
- people recycle many useable items; recycling programs should be expanded;
- no one supports rats or dirty alleys - use of alleys as a bathroom is out of necessity;
- locking cans will not solve problem; must develop better solution for social problem;
- City should be respectful of residents who live on lanes;
- dumpster fires not defined accurately in report;
- approval of Recommendations C & D of report would be useful;
- social impact assessment/strategy should be considered through Vancouver Agreement;
- over past year, improvement in condition of a specific alley has occurred where landlord has taken a real interest in his property; this attitude should be encouraged; and
- if all containers are locked, overflow garbage will be left on top of locked containers, in streets and alleys, everywhere but in a container.

Staff responded to questions relating to:

- crushing schedule is related to street cleaning and is done at night to allow alley access; staff will pass concern on to street cleaning operations;
- potential for removing bins and revising collection schedule;
- Gastown BIA is investigating a dumpster-free process using labour from marginalized communities (similar to system in Seattle); staff is working with Gastown BIA to see if this would be an appropriate model for various areas in Vancouver;
- bin locations, reasons for bin overflow and permitting requirements on public property;
- use of City vs private companies for clean-up;
- enforcement/system of payment issues including graffiti concerns and residential users who contravene regulations; and
- staff will meet with Yaletown BIA to review specific concerns.

MOVED by Councillor Ladner

THAT the Committee recommend to Council

- A. THAT Council move towards requiring locked lids on all commercial-size garbage and recycling containers, on the street or visible from the street, over one cubic yard in volume, in a three-step process that begins with education to encourage re-using, donating, and recycling over disposing of items of value and that ends with notices of By-law violation, including notice of the City's right to impound problem containers, and that a decision on requiring containers to be locked be deferred for six months subject to a report back on the success of other measures included in these recommendations.
- B. THAT the user address or addresses of commercial garbage and recycling containers, including the business name and address except for medical offices or supply companies be prominently displayed on all containers on the street or visible from the street, and that the responsibility for ensuring compliance with this requirement rests with the person who contracts for the service.
- C. THAT mandatory garbage and paper fibre recycling service be imposed on all non-residential properties unless the owners or occupiers thereof can demonstrate that they contract for removal of the waste generated from their property as required by the By-law.
- D. THAT the current maximum penalty of $100 for violation of the Solid Waste and Recycling By-law be changed to a minimum penalty of $50 to a maximum of $2,000.
- E. THAT communication with commercial garbage container users affected by this policy include instructions to place clear plastic bags, separate from the containers to enable pickup by people whose incomes depend on collection recyclables; and

- F. THAT the City work with United We Can and commercial garbage users to facilitate making recyclables available for pickup by people whose incomes depend on collecting recyclables.
