Hi,

I would like to comment on item 2 at Tuesday's hearing. This is not an email entirely in opposition or entirely in support.

The general idea to make it easier to build housing (especially social housing) is great. But I am disgusted by the specific exemption for RS and RT (single family and duplex) neighbourhoods. You are literally shielding the wealthiest people most able to cope with change – why? I urge you to go back to the drawing board and rewrite this policy to apply to all neighbourhoods and even more housing types. Explicitly favoring single-family neighbourhoods is not OK when most Vancouverites live in multifamily homes.

Best,
Reilly Wood
