Hello CoV,

I'm writing to express my strong support for this Rupert street development, considering that it is an excellent rental addition to a zone that is currently almost exclusively SFH, and there is no displacement.

Please approve this, and other projects like this.

Best,

Jennifer Bradshaw

Dear Mayor and Council,

I'm writing to express my support for 4459 Rupert St. and 855 Kingsway (my address is included below).

53 per cent of Vancouver's households are renters and deserve more affordable, secure housing. With a vacancy rate that is still below one per cent, we desperately need new rental homes, especially those that are close to transit.

These two Rental 100 projects — together providing 61 new rental homes, including 10 family-friendly units — fit the bill.

Restoring housing affordability, security and accessibility will require a comprehensive approach, like that outlined in the Housing Vancouver strategy and in B.C.'s housing strategy.

Approving more market rental housing targeting low and middle-income households is a critical part of that comprehensive approach.

Keep in mind that without places for low-income people to live, a lot of the jobs they do, that keep your day running smoothly, won't be filled, and we'll all be the poorer for it.

Thanks so much for your time and consideration,

Sincerely,
Agnes Watts
