Good morning mayor and council,

I have concerns regarding the content of the policy reports for the two heritage designations on the agenda for the September 10, 2019 Public Hearing. I believe that the policy reports violate the principals of Vancouver as a city of reconciliation. These buildings may have heritage merit, but there is a pattern of the only heritage we protect is that of the elites settler state. These need analysis to how proposed designations contribute to the overall composition of Vancouver's heritage register. I fear that these only reinforce an anti-reconciliation, settler state only heritage.

Thanks for considering my perspective.
