Dear Mayor and Council,

As a long time Vancouver resident, I'd like to share my support for the new Lakeview Multicultural Church and rental housing project at East 12th and Semlin Drive.

This proposal represents a far better utilization of this site in an extremely convenient location nearby transit and existing services. I'm pleased to see this proposal will bring new housing to the area and that the church will be renewing their space through this rezoning. The new church space will not only serve the members of Lakeview's congregation, but will also provide crucial meeting and gathering space for the broader community.

I hope to see this project move forward. Thanks for your consideration.

Sincerely,
S.Goodman.

Please take this letter of support for consideration regarding the project proposed at the site of the Lakeview United Church:

This project fits the area and will be a great benefit to the community. With the implementation of the Lakeview Church staying, and being at the ground level, as well as Market and Lower-Market rental opportunities. With projects like these it gives the neighbourhood a great addition to welcome new (and maybe even current whom are getting pushed out due to pricing) a place to call home. I understand the process for these projects have a shorter timeline, which is great, as Vancouver, specifically the Grandview Woodlands Area are in a crisis. Looking ahead and thinking supportive thoughts for projects like this to go ahead in the neighbourhood.
