WELCOME

The Mayor acknowledged we are on the unceded territories of the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh Nations and we thank them for having cared for this land and look forward to working with them in partnership as we continue to build this great city together.

The Mayor also recognized the immense contributions of the City of Vancouver's staff who work hard every day to help make our city an incredible place to live, work, and play.

CONDOLENCES

1. Kamloops Residential School 215 Seconds of Silence

The Mayor extended his sincere condolences regarding the confirmation from Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc that the bodies of 215 children at the former Kamloops Indian Residential School were buried unceremoniously in graves – away from their families, culture, and lands. Council observed 215 seconds of silence to reflect on how violence against Indigenous People remains with us, and how it is incumbent upon all non-Indigenous Canadians to not only atone for this legacy but also help with the hard work of reconciliation

2. Cam Cathcart

The Mayor extended his sincere condolences on the unexpected passing of Cam Cathcart on Saturday, June 5th, and acknowledged his many contributions to the City, noting his most recognized leadership role on the Vancouver Remembrance Day Committee and as the Master of Ceremonies of the Remembrance Day Service at Victory Square from 2003 to 2020.
