CD-1 Rezoning: 622-688 Southwest Marine Drive	Support	The housing component for the YWCA is of particular interest, as well as the below market units, as we know the community would highly benefit from this opportunity to find affordable housing options. -This area of Vancouver needs more truly affordable housing and this development proposal is a good start -Having family housing in this neighbourhood will have a very positive impact for the community, specially the deeply affordable units of the YWCA. Children can greatly benefit from living in a vibrant community.	Mimi Rennie		s.22(1) Personal and Confidential	Victoria-Fraserview	No web attachments.

CD-1 Rezoning: 622-688 Southwest Marine Drive	Support	It's nice to see that new developments close to transit will include a significant amount of below market rents, particularly deeply affordable units and tailored for families (YWCA). All new developments, specially these big ones should show this kind of social/financial awareness.	Gloria Gonzalez		s.22(1) Personal and Confide	Kitsilano	No web attachments.

I am the father of a young baby and my wife and i have been in a list for childcare for months. I'm really glad to see more child care is being considered and I hope approved. I also commend the builder for proposing moderate income housing and new homes through a partnership with the Y.	L. D.		s.22(1) Personal and Confidential	Unknown	No web attachments.
01/25/2022	13:05	PH2 - 1. CD-1 Rezoning: 622-688 Southwest Marine Drive	Support	This new development provides 35% of family housing which is really needed in Vancouver. It also provides deeply affordable units that the YWCA will operate, low income single mothers and their children need housing that is well located and close to many other community amenities. Children can greatly benefit from living in a vibrant community.	Theoni Gill		s.22(1) Personal and Confidential	I do not live in Vancouver	No web attachments.

CD-1 Rezoning: 622-688 Southwest Marine Drive	Support	Supporting developments with density around Rapid Transit Networks is a key paradigm prescription we need to adopt and encourage in our urban planning and development guidelines. We can foster greener modes of living by doing so. That is why I am encouraging council to support this rezoning. This proposed development at 622 SouthWest Marine Dr. will foster a hub for myself and people like me; students and young professionals. It will build on the strong neighbourhood and support the businesses and amenities already in the area. I am hopeful this project will be approved and materialize asap.
