CD-1 Rezoning: 3575-3655 Kaslo Street, 3580-3644 Slocan Street and 2755 East 21st Avenue | Support | I am writing in strong support of this project as the needs identified by BC families that have children and young people living with health complexity are met by the services proposed. This is an innovative approach (first of its kind in Canada) that through facility architecture and program service design is optimized to best meet the needs of these young people and their families as they have contributed directly in its planning. These are not services best provided in a hospital setting and will benefit immensely from the residential setting of the Slocan site which has a legacy of providing health care services to children in this province. | Jana Davidson | Renfrew-Collingwood | |
| 2023-01-04 | 20:04 | PH 2 - 1. CD-1 Rezoning: 3575-3655 Kaslo Street, 3580-3644 Slocan Street and 2755 East 21st Avenue | Support | I strongly support this rezoning application for the development of the B.C. Children's Hospital complex care transition facility. This facility will provide much needed support for children and youth in the community, and the inclusion of a single-storey childcare facility is an added benefit. The proposed floor space ratio and building heights seem appropriate for the area, and it is good to see that the existing Hartman Building, Annex Building, and Children's Hearing and Speech Centre of BC will not be affected by this development. Overall, I believe this proposal will be a positive addition to the community and should be approved. | Heikal Badrulhisham | I do not live in Vancouver | |

CD-1 Rezoning: 3575-3655 Kaslo Street, 3580-3644 Slocan Street and 2755 East 21st Avenue | Support | We wholly support the plans for the new facility being designed to provide health care supports to children and youth with health complexity. As an organization that provides clinical and educational supports to children who are deaf or hard of hearing, we understand the variety of health challenges that children may face. The development team have done an excellent job of involving various stakeholders in the planning process. We are excited that this new facility will help meet the needs of these children and their families, and look forward to partnering with PHSA and the health care teams. CD-1 Rezoning: 3575-3655 Kaslo Street, 3580-3644 Slocan Street and 2755 East 21st Avenue | Support | This new centre will provide essential care for children with health complexity and their families across the province of BC. Children with health complexity, and their families require care outside of a hospital setting. This location in a quiet residential area is optimal for a centre being developed as a place of healing. I hope that you share my excitement that the planned centre is the first of its kind in Canada. | Steven Miller | | |

CD-1 Rezoning: 3575-3655 Kaslo Street, 3580-3644 Slocan Street and 2755 East 21st Avenue | Support | Dear City of Vancouver, I writing to provide my support for the proposed new health care facility at 3580-3644 Slocan Street. This new centre will provide much needed care to BC children and families dealing with health complexity. The proposed development will provide BC families with specialized care outside of the traditional hospital setting. The quiet residential area is perfect for a centre designed to be a place of calm and healing for families. The proposed facility will take advantage of the natural beauty of the area and I believe enhance and support the current neighbourhood feel. As a member of the BC Children's team of health care providers, I am excited that this future centre will allow BC Children's Hospital to continue to provide leading edge care and service delivery while also continuing to connect and grow with communities across BC. Sunnyhill were excellent neighbours. We were concerned about a large new project taking over our neighbourhood however we have been very impressed with the communication and consultation process by the Slocan Project team. The project looks amazing and we believe will be an excellent addition to our neighbourhood. Our only concern may be noise from the build. Hopefully it won't be a huge issue. | Sonya Lill | Renfrew-Collingwood | |

CD-1 Rezoning: 3575-3655 Kaslo Street, 3580-3644 Slocan Street and 2755 East 21st Avenue | Support | As the parent of a medically complex child with cerebral palsy I am in strong support of the redevelopment of the old Slocan Site (former Sunny Hill hospital) in East Vancouver. We live in Whitehorse Yukon and travel down to Vancouver multiple times per year (sometimes planned, sometimes emergency) for specialized care for our daughter. I am very excited about all that this new facility will offer and that it will be the first of it's kind in Canada. When faced with an uncertain and challenging future ahead in raising a complex child it's comforting to know that such a project is going forward and that the needs of families like ours are truly being listened to. Thank you for your consideration of this project. It will be a gift to the city, to the neighbourhood, to families in BC and Yukon, and most importantly to our children who need all the help they can get. | Erin Brost | I do not live in Vancouver | |
