Vancouver is in dire need of diverse housing options beyond single-family homes. The city's growing population and evolving housing needs necessitate the development of alternative housing solutions. We need a sustainable communities in the area.</li> <li>2. Addressing the housing shortage and increasing affordability in Vancouver. Single houses in the area become harder to afford. Multi family enable individuals and families from various income levels to find suitable housing within the city.</li> <li>3. Multi family housing helps foster a sense of community and promotes social interaction among residents.</li> </ol> In conclusion, I want to retire in city of Vancouver and want to have some more affordable options	Max Wong	s.22(1) Personal and Confidential	I do not live in Vancouver
