ENQUIRIES AND OTHER MATTERS

1. City of Vancouver Anti-Racism Strategy

Councillor Zhou noted that in August 2022, Council received a memo from the General Manager of Arts, Culture and Community Services, containing an update on the progress and future work required for the City's Anti-Racism Strategy. He enquired if Council could have an updated memo regarding future progress, milestones, and the future status to continue advancing the Anti-Racism Strategy in the city of Vancouver. The City Manager agreed to provide Council with a memo and also provide some background information on the challenges the Social Policy team has been dealing with, and why the strategy has not advanced as much as last year.

2. Water Restrictions

Councillor Boyle noted the current drought warnings from the provincial government and requested an update on how Council can help amplify requests around the city regarding how to best manage water. The City Manager advised Metro is still operating in stage one restrictions and agreed to provide an update and include what the projection might look like for the rest of the summer.

3. Yew Open Street Pilot

Councillor Kirby-Yung enquired about the Yew Open Street Pilot which began at the end of June 2023. She asked for information to clarify the public's questions and comments that have been received regarding the pilot. The City Manager advised staff are receiving the same issues and feedback and noted this is an experiment and a challenging implementation. He further noted staff are contemplating a number of changes and he will provide that feedback to Council. Councillor Kirby-Yung asked if Yew Street might not be the best street for this pilot and the City Manager agreed to share the comment with staff, however, he advised, that at this stage staff believe it is too early to say it is not possible to make this work.

4. Mountain View Cemetery

Councillor Klassen thanked staff for the report back on the state of affairs for the Mountain View Cemetery. He noted concerns with the access entrance on Prince Edward Street as it is attached to the pathway to the memorial for the military service and currently people do not have a safe and calm way to walk through that space. He requested information on the goals and timelines for the entrance on Prince Edward Street to be re-opened. The City Manager agreed to report back on timelines and follow up.

ADJOURNMENT

MOVED by Councillor Dominato
SECONDED by Councillor Boyle

THAT the meeting be adjourned.

CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY

Council adjourned at 11:42 am.
