ENQUIRIES AND OTHER MATTERS

1. Noisy Cars and Sirens

Councillor Carr noted individuals had advised her of their concerns about increasing noise from cars late at night on Pacific Boulevard and enquired if fines could be levied from the Vancouver Police Department on those cars. She also noted some individuals expressed concerns and requested information about the increased volume of sirens in the city from emergency vehicles. The City Manager provided a response and agreed to follow-up.

2. The West End Community Plan Implementation

Councillor Carr enquired about the timeline for the proposed West End complex, which includes the community centre, high school and library. The City Manager advised there was not funding in the current Capital Plan for the project, however, funding will be included in future Capital Plans. He agreed to follow-up with an update.

3. Winter Shelters

Councillor Boyle enquired if Council could receive more information on plans to open additional winter shelters as well as information on what options exist to open those shelters earlier this year. The City Manager agreed to provide an update.

4. Timeline for Renaming Trutch Street

Councillor Dominato requested a further update from her previous request at Council on June 13, 2023, on the timeline for renaming Trutch Street. The City Manager noted there is no definitive timeline and agreed to follow-up.

5. Mitigation Efforts Along Kaslo Street

Councillor Dominato noted several significant collisions at the intersections of McGill and Kaslo and Penticton and Kaslo. She enquired if Council could receive a report back from Engineering Services on mitigation efforts within the neighbourhood including staff reviewing speeding along the Kaslo corridor. The City Manager agreed to follow-up.

6. Update on the Age-Friendly Action Plan

Councillor Klassen requested an update on the status of the work from the City's The Age-Friendly Action Plan. The City Manager agreed to provide an update.

7. Scooters and Micro Mobility Regulations

Councillor Klassen noted he received concerns from individuals regarding the current speed of many scooters and micro mobility vehicles and people almost getting hit by them. He noted the vehicles are popular and enquired how the City can manage speeds and prevent accidents. The City Manager noted the City is currently participating in a pilot from the Province regarding these matters, and also that regulations and enforcement is the responsibility of the Vancouver Police Department. He agreed to follow-up and provide a response.
