CD-1 Rezoning: 848 Seymour Street	Oppose	We see so much emphasis placed on banning short-term rentals as a solution to Vancouver's housing availability problem, so how does building yet another hotel do anything but make the problem worse? And with Seymour Street being so narrow, the building will be practically arms length from Capitol Residences at 833 Seymour, directly across the street. What happened to the importance of preserving the views and quality of life for existing residents?	Peter Knize	Downtown
