I think capital has had its day in the sun (not that it will ever really leave it) but it's time to get back to the meat and potatoes of what makes a society work, and a big part of making effective communities is having the space and means in which to do so without undue regulation that can be exclusively beneficial to particular groups. 2024-05-28	12:57	1. CD-1 Rezoning: 1805 Victoria Drive	Support	This process is frankly absurd. That a pre-existing firehall has to go through a year long rezoning effort to be "approved" is patently ridiculous. The whole planning department needs a complete overhaul in terms of what it is supposed to do because this approval process that applies one-of-a-kind rules for individual sites simply cannot scale to meet the demand for urban renewal in Vancouver, whether that regards the development of new housing or CRITICAL SAFETY INFRASTRCTURE LIKE A FIRE STATION! What on earth are we doing?	Bobo Eyrich	Mount Pleasant
