I understand how difficult it can be to find reliable, well-located secured rental housing, especially in this area. The addition of 95 new rental units managed by a reputable owner like Strand is exactly what our city needs. This proposed development, located near the Kerrisdale and Oakridge neighborhoods, boasts several key advantages. It is close to Kerrisdale’s shops and restaurants and offers easy access to major transit routes, including the 41-bus to UBC and Oakridge, the 10-bus to downtown, and the 49-bus to Metrotown. Purpose-built rental projects like this one are essential to alleviating the pressures of the current housing crisis that many Vancouver renters are experiencing. As city councilors consider this proposal, we urge you to keep in mind the significant financial strain faced by renters who should not be forced to leave their city due to a lack of housing supply.	William Dale	Downtown
2024-10-21	08:11	Rezoning: 5950-5990 Granville Street	Support	As a young professional living and working in the downtown core, I have been exposed to the unaffordability of Vancouver rental rates. Currently, I rent a room in a shared apartment. In the long term I hope to be able to afford to rent an apartment in Vancouver on my own. Projects such as the one being proposed here will help increase the supply within the Vancouver rental apartment market and will lead to a market that is more accessible to renters. It is also important to consider that this project is on a main arterial road and offers many transit options to get around the city. I support the approval of this project.	Fernando Padres	Downtown

As a renter in Vancouver, I know firsthand how difficult it is to find well-located, secure rental housing, especially in this part of the city. The addition of 95 new rental units, managed by a reputable developer like Strand, is exactly what Vancouver needs. This project, situated between Kerrisdale and Oakridge, offers numerous advantages. Its proximity to Kerrisdale’s shops and restaurants, along with convenient access to key transit routes—such as the 41 bus to UBC and Oakridge, the 10 bus to downtown, and the 49 bus to Metrotown—makes it an ideal location. Purpose-built rental projects like this are essential in addressing the housing crisis that many Vancouver renters are currently experiencing. I urge city councillors to consider the financial strain facing renters and the importance of increasing housing supply to ensure people aren’t displaced from their own city.	Matt Upson	West End
