2024-10-29	20:01	CD-1 Rezoning: 2175 West 7th Avenue	Support	As a Kitsilano resident and young professional who lives two blocks down from this proposed development, I welcome the opportunity to allow more renters and families to come and enjoy the amenities and beauty of the neighbourhood that I call home. For too long, exclusionary zoning—aided and abetted by people who want to freeze the city in amber in the name of their property prices—have created the worst housing crisis in North America, thereby denying younger generations the same opportunities to live, work and play in Vancouver that they were once afforded. While one tower will surely not remedy the effects of decades of housing scarcity, it is a start—one that we cannot allow the architects of the housing crisis to delay or obstruct any further.
