With escalating rental and housing costs, the addition of these homes will offer much-needed relief for families, workers, and individuals struggling to find affordable housing. This initiative aligns with Vancouver's commitment to sustainability, inclusivity, and livability by creating diverse housing options close to transit, schools, and community resources. Rezoning allows for efficient land use, maximizing space in areas capable of supporting increased density without compromising the city's character. It fosters community growth and supports local businesses by ensuring more people can live where they work and play. Investing in housing today builds a foundation for a more equitable and prosperous Vancouver tomorrow. Let's embrace this opportunity to enhance affordability, reduce homelessness, and create a city where everyone has a place to call home.	Cedric Kamani	Mount Pleasant
2024-11-26	01:15	CD-1 Rezoning: 1068-1090 Burnaby Street and 1318 Thurlow Street	Support	I would like to offer some comments on the rezoning application by Anthem Properties at 1068-1090 Burnaby St and 1318 Thurlow St. As a resident of Vancouver, I want to see more housing investment in our community, particularly secured rental and below market housing which is a vital necessity for the vast majority who cannot afford to purchase a home in Vancouver. Many of my friends and colleagues are renters, and I see far too many people leaving the City because of the housing situation. I think it's great that more housing, especially much needed rental, is being proposed here. The existing building is looking pretty tired, and does not maximize housing potential, and I am looking forward to seeing this site renewed with new housing. I hope that you will continue to support this application when it comes before Council for a Public Hearing on Tuesday.	Danielle Lim	Downtown
