Subject:	CD-1 Rezoning: 469-483 East 10th Avenue
Position:	Oppose
Comments:	The mature tree lined 10th Avenue bike lane is a Vancouver treasure. People from all over the world blog about it and post photos as evidence of Vancouver's welcoming beauty. By all means, replace some of the older buildings and houses with low-rise apartments if the landowners want, but chopping down trees to put up towers will destroy this hidden gem of our city. There is already one tower going up on this same block - another would surely destroy what is left of the charm of this particularly photogenic block.
