More below-market rentals in accessible, vibrant locations are exactly what Vancouver needs. I think the Broadway Plan is well-intentioned, now it's about delivering the results and improving our housing and transit options. | Adrian Garvey | Arbutus Ridge | |

We need more rental and below market rental housing that offers a range of options for different households, especially in such a well-connected location. Being close to public transit and the new Canada Line makes this an ideal place to live for people who want accessibility, convenience, and fewer cars on the road. | Carey Buntain | Kensington-Cedar Cottage | |

| 2025-06-11 | 19:51 | CD-1 Rezoning: 1665-1685 West 11th Avenue | Support | As a growing family renting in the city, we're always looking for housing that suits our needs without having to leave the neighbourhoods we love. This project provides exactly that: family-friendly rental homes in a walkable, welcoming community. It's the kind of thoughtful development that helps families like ours stay in Vancouver. We're fully in support. | Daniel k | | |

| 2025-06-11 | 20:01 | CD-1 Rezoning: 1665-1685 West 11th Avenue | Support | As someone in my 30s who knows that many depend on transit to get around the city, I fully support building more rental housing within the Broadway corridor. These kinds of projects make it easier for people to live closer to where they work, shop, and spend time with friends without needing a car. It's a practical and sustainable approach to housing that Vancouver needs more of. | Ari G | | |
| 2025-06-11 | 20:09 | CD-1 Rezoning: 1665-1685 West 11th Avenue | Support | I support this project. As a parent of two adult children in their 20s, I see firsthand how difficult it is for young people to find secure, affordable rental housing in Vancouver. A building like this expands the options available to them and others in similar situations. We need more projects like this. | Tom Gradecak | | |
| 2025-06-11 | 20:15 | CD-1 Rezoning: 1665-1685 West 11th Avenue | Support | Hi, I support this project. I have three children in their 20s, and I know how challenging it is for young adults to find housing in Vancouver. This kind of purpose-built rental will give them, and many others, more options to live independently while staying close to family and work. The location is excellent. Being near the new Canada Line station makes it even more appealing and accessible. | Rob M | | |
