I'm excited for the future kids in this area to be able to have the same experience our son does. This is a great use of the site and I think will be a great addition to Kingsway. My wife and I would definitely consider living somewhere like this with our family. Personally, I think the VHDO model is interesting and I'd like to see what happens with these pilot sites. The new neighbourhood house and outdoor space will be amazing, alongside the new retail. It's super easy to get to via transit. Please support!	Aidan Crawford

The area has seen a lot of growth and including new neighbourhood serving amenities like a neighbourhood house or public space will be very well used.	Anna Rose

Personally I think it's great they're keeping the sign as part of the public art component. I think the heights are in line with the area	Tyler Lunde
